

CHARITON COURIER

C. P. VANDIVER, EDITOR AND PROP.

KEYTESVILLE, MISSOURI

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT is having a spicy holiday. He shot a cinnamon bear.

FEDERAL office-holders are rapidly being divided into two classes—rough riders and Iowa men.

EVIDENTLY the Russian government would like to let go of the novelist, Gorki, now if it only knew how.

MR. ROOSEVELT has proved his good aim in bringing down bears. It is now in order for him to turn his attention to the "bills."

A WOMAN in New Jersey has appealed to the courts to help her to discharge her housekeeper. A mother-in-law is the one for that job.

IN all the abuse heaped on the head of the beef trust it returns no angry answer. All that it modestly and meekly asks is to be "let alone."

MINISTER ERNEST LYON says good negroes are wanted in Liberia. That particular variety is also greatly desired in this country.

WE will know how seriously the Texans are taking it when the reports come in of the number of babies that are being named for Theodore Roosevelt.

It has been found possible, a German servant declares, to teach a horse how to think. It is now in order to repeat the experiment on a large class of human beings.

It never occurred to us before, but isn't it a little queer that the president didn't call on Vice-President Fairbanks to hold down the lid while he was away on his hunting trip?

MR. SHONTS says the Panama canal will be built "on the same principle that a railway would be built." It is expected, however, to have more water per mile than a railroad.

No doubt it will prove a waste of time for Senator Elkins to go on and fix up the railway rate bill. Senator LaFollette will probably insist upon having it all done over again.

HARTUNG-KOTHE:—F. H. M. Hartung of Glasgow and Miss Adolphine Kothe of Forest Green were married at the residence of the bride's brother-in-law, Louis Freese, near Forest Green, Sunday afternoon, April 23, 1905, Rev. Emil Polster tying the nuptial knot. Only relatives of the bridal couple were present. Following the marriage ceremony and congratulations a fine supper was served in honor of the occasion. Mr. Hartung is a successful farmer and reputable citizen while his bride possesses all of the attributes that fit her for a good wife and helpmeet. The COURIER desires to be remembered among their friends and well-wishers.

LARSON-BIBEE:—The account of the following marriage, taken from a Laramie, Wyo., paper will be of local interest as the bride a grand-daughter of "Uncle" Johnnie Brooks and is well known in this community: A quiet, but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bibee, 567 North Fourth street, where Miss Gertrude Bibee, the charming daughter of the family, was united to Mr. Louis J. Larson. The officiating clergyman was Rev. F. W. Bross of the First Methodist church, and the ceremony was performed in the front parlor of the residence in the presence of the relatives of the bride and groom and of a few close friends. The large bow-window of the apartment was most tastefully draped with lace curtains, decorated with smilax, potted flowering plants and with pink and white roses. The bride was very prettily gowned in a costume of white silk mull trimmed with delicate lace and carried white roses and carnations. She was attended by four little "ribbon" girls, dressed all in white, who added greatly to the attractiveness of the ceremony. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Larson. He has lived all of his life in Laramie and like his father, is an employe of the Union Pacific at the machine-shops. He is a young man of sterling character who has numbers of warm friends among his fellow-workers and in the city generally. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bibee and came from Keytesville, Mo., to this city to reside two years ago. She has just finished a term of school in this county and is one of the most estimable young ladies in Laramie. The wedding party, after the ceremony was over, sat down to a delicious supper and enjoyed a merry time. The little girls who attended the bride were Dagna Thisenius, Bertha Larson, Maude Burk and Merdith Langheldt. The young couple will make their home with the parents of the bride. They were the recipients of a large number of very handsome presents, including a piano, much cut glass, silverware and china.

DAN GROSVENOR SAYS:

"Pe-ru-na is an Excellent Spring Catarrh Remedy—I am as Well as Ever."

HON. DAN. A. GROSVENOR, OF THE FAMOUS OHIO FAMILY.

Hon. Dan. A. Grosvenor, Deputy Auditor for the War Department, in a letter written from Washington, D. C., says:

"Allow me to express my gratitude to you for the benefit derived from one bottle of Peruna. One week has brought wonderful changes and I am now as well as ever. Besides being one of the very best spring tonics it is an excellent catarrh remedy."

DAN. A. GROSVENOR.

In a recent letter he says:

"I consider Peruna really more meritorious than I did when I wrote you last. I receive numerous letters from acquaintances all over the country asking me if my certificate is genuine. I invariably answer, 'Yes.'—Dan. A. Grosvenor.

A County Commissioner's Letter.

Hon. John Williams, County Commissioner, of 517 West Second street, Duluth, Minn., says the following in regard to Peruna:

"As a remedy for catarrh I can cheerfully recommend Peruna. I know what it is to suffer from that terrible disease and I feel that it is my duty to speak a good word for the tonic that brought me immediate relief. Peruna cured me of a bad case of catarrh and I know it will cure any other sufferer from that disease."—John Williams.

A Congressman's Letter.

Hon. H. W. Ogden, Congressman from Louisiana, in a letter written at Washington, D. C., says the following of Peruna, the national catarrh remedy:

"I can conscientiously recommend your Peruna as a fine tonic and all around good medicine to those who are in need of a catarrh remedy. It has been commended to me by people who have used it, as a remedy particularly effective in the cure of catarrh. For those who need a good catarrh medicine I know of nothing better."

W. E. Griffith, Concan, Texas, writes: "I suffered with chronic catarrh for many years. I took Peruna and it completely cured me. I think Peruna is the best medicine in the world for catarrh. My general health is much improved by its use, as I am much stronger than I have been for years."—W. E. Griffith.

A Congressman's Letter.

Congressman H. Bowen, Ruskin, Tazewell county, Va., writes:

"I can cheerfully recommend your valuable remedy, Peruna, to any one who is suffering with catarrh, and who is in need of a permanent and effective cure."—H. Bowen.

Mr. Fred. D. Scott, Larue, Ohio, Right Guard of Hiram Foot Ball Team, writes: "As a specific for lung trouble I place Peruna at the head. I have used it myself for colds and catarrh of the bowels and it is a splendid remedy. It restores vitality, increases bodily strength and makes a sick person well in a short time. I give Peruna my hearty indorsement."—Fred. D. Scott.

Gen. Ira C. Abbott, 906 M street, N. W., Washington, D. C., writes:

"I am fully convinced that your remedy is an excellent tonic. Many of my friends have used it with the most beneficial results for coughs, colds and catarrhal trouble."—Ira C. Abbott.

Mrs. Elmer Fleming, orator of Reservoir Council No. 168, Northwestern Legion of Honor, of Minneapolis, Minn., writes from 2535 Polk street, N.E.:

"I have been troubled all my life with catarrh in my head. I took Peruna for about three months, and now think I am permanently cured. I believe that for catarrh in all its forms Peruna is the medicine of the age. It cures when all other remedies fail. I can heartily recommend Peruna as a catarrh remedy."—Mrs. Elmer Fleming.

Treat Catarrh in Spring.

The spring is the time to treat catarrh. Cold, wet winter weather often retards a cure of catarrh. If a course of Peruna is taken during the early spring months the cure will be prompt and permanent. There can be no failures if Peruna is taken intelligently during the favorable weather of spring.

As a systemic catarrh remedy Peruna eradicates catarrh from the system wherever it may be located. It cures catarrh of the stomach or bowels with the same certainty as catarrh of the head. If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
